Welcome to the 2002 Guide To Health Insurance For People With Medicare: Choosing A Medigap Policy

How This Guide Can Help You

This Guide is about “Medicare Supplement Insurance,” also called “Medigap Policies.” A Medigap policy is a health insurance policy sold by private insurance companies to help you pay the medical costs the Original Medicare Plan does not cover. Choosing a Medigap policy is a very important decision.

This Guide provides you with valuable information and helps you understand:

- What Medigap policies are,
- How Medigap policies can help you,
- What to do before you buy a Medigap policy, and
- How to choose the best policy for you.

Only you can decide if you need a Medigap policy with the Original Medicare Plan. This Guide can help you!

Remember, there are many things to think about before you decide. There are other kinds of health coverage, besides a Medigap policy, that may pay for some of your health care costs not covered by Medicare (see page 58).

“I used this Guide when I was shopping for a Medigap policy. The steps to buying a Medigap policy were very helpful.”

-Sam

You don't need a Medigap policy if you are in a Medicare + Choice Plan (Medicare managed care plan [like an HMO] or Medicare Private Fee-for-Service plan).

Section 1: A Quick Look At Medicare

“We weren’t sure what Medicare covered until we read over this section.”

-Dan and Mai

Medicare has two parts:

- Part A Hospital Insurance, see page 5. Most people do not have to pay for Part A.
- Part B Medical Insurance, see pages 5-8. Most people pay monthly for Part B.

Medicare Health Plan Choices

Depending on where you live, you may be able to get your health care in several ways. Medicare offers the following types of Medicare health plans:

Medigap policies only help pay health care costs if you are in the Original Medicare Plan.

The Original Medicare Plan - The Original Medicare Plan is a “fee-for-service” plan. You are charged a fee for each health care service or supply you get. This plan, managed by the Federal Government, is available nationwide. You will stay in the Original Medicare Plan unless you choose to join a Medicare + Choice plan. Many people in the Original Medicare Plan also buy a Medigap (Medicare Supplement Insurance) policy to help pay health care costs that this plan does not cover.

Medicare + Choice Plans (pronounced “Medicare plus Choice”) - Medicare + Choice plans provide care under contract to Medicare. There are two types of Medicare + Choice plans. They are available in many parts of the country.

Medicare + Choice Plans include:

- Medicare managed care plans (like HMOs), and
- Medicare Private Fee-for-Service plans.

Important: If you belong to a Medicare + Choice plan, the plan must cover at least the same benefits as Medicare Part A and Part B. However, your costs may be different, and you may have extra benefits, like coverage for prescription drugs or additional days in the hospital.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

It is important to know how you get your Medicare health care. To learn more about Medicare, look at your copy of the Medicare & You handbook (CMS Pub. No. 10050), which is mailed each fall to people with Medicare. You can order a copy by calling 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. You can also read or print a copy of this handbook at www.medicare.gov on the Web. Select “Publications.”

Medicare Part A

Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) helps pay for:

- Inpatient hospital care,
- Skilled nursing facility care,
- Hospice care, and
- Some home health care.

How To Get Medicare Part A

Most people get Medicare Part A automatically when they turn age 65. They do not have to pay a monthly payment called a premium for Medicare Part A because they or a spouse paid Medicare taxes while they were working. This is called premium-free Medicare Part A.

If you (or your spouse) did not pay Medicare taxes while you worked, and you are age 65 or older, you still may be able to buy Medicare Part A. If you are not sure if you have Medicare Part A, look on your red, white, and blue Medicare card. It will show “Hospital Part A” on the lower left corner of the card. You can also call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213 or call your local Social Security office for more information about buying Medicare Part A. If you get benefits from the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB), call your local RRB office or 1-800-808-0772.

Medicare Part B

Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance) helps pay for:

- Doctors’ services,
- Outpatient hospital care, and
- Some other medical services that Medicare Part A does not cover (like some home health care).

Medicare Part B helps pay for these covered services and supplies when they are medically necessary.

For more information on what Medicare Part A covers, see the coverage chart on page 69.

For more information on what Medicare Part B covers, see the coverage charts on pages 70-72.

How To Get Medicare Part B

You are automatically eligible for Medicare Part B if:

- You are eligible for premium-free Medicare Part A.
- You are a United States citizen or permanent resident age 65 or older.

Just before you turn 65 years old, you have to decide whether or not to enroll in Medicare Part B. You should keep in mind that the cost of Medicare Part B will go up 10% for each 12-month period that you could have had Medicare Part B but did not sign up for it, except in special cases (see pages 7-8, “The Special Enrollment Period For Medicare Part B”).

If you choose to enroll in Medicare Part B, you pay the Medicare Part B premium of $54.00 per month in 2002. Rates can change every year. For some people, this amount may be higher if they did not choose Medicare Part B when they first became eligible at age 65.

The premium is usually taken out of your monthly Social Security, Railroad Retirement, or Civil Service Retirement payment. In these cases, you won't get a bill for your premium. If you do not get any of these payments, Medicare sends you a bill for your Medicare Part B premium every 3 months. If you do not get your bill by the 10th of the month, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. If you get benefits from the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB), call your local RRB office or 1-800-808-0772.

If you didn't sign up for Medicare Part B when you were first eligible, you may sign up during 2 enrollment periods:

- The General Enrollment Period, see page 7.
- The Special Enrollment Period, see pages 7-8.

The General Enrollment Period For Medicare Part B

This period runs from January 1 through March 31 of each year. During this time, you can sign up for Medicare Part B at your local Social Security office. If you get benefits from the Railroad Retirement Board (RRB), call your local RRB office or 1-800-808-0772. Your Medicare Part B coverage will start on July 1 of the year you sign up. Remember, the cost of Medicare Part B will go up 10% for each 12-month period that you could have had Medicare Part B but did not take it, except in special cases (see below). You will have to pay this extra amount as long as you have Medicare Part B.

The Special Enrollment Period For Medicare Part B

This period is only available if you waited to enroll in Medicare Part B because you or your spouse were working and had group health coverage through an employer or union based on this current employment. Most people who sign up for Medicare Part B during a Special Enrollment Period do not pay higher premiums.

If this applies to you, you can sign up for Medicare Part B during the Special Enrollment Period:

- Any time you are still covered by an employer or union group health plan, through your or your spouse's current or active employment, or
- During the 8 months following the month that the employer or union group health plan coverage ends, or when the employment ends (whichever is first).

Note: If you are still working and plan to keep your employer's group health coverage, you should talk to your benefits administrator to help you decide when is the best time to enroll in Medicare Part B. When you sign up for Medicare Part B, you automatically begin your Medigap open enrollment period. Once your Medigap open enrollment period begins, it cannot be changed or restarted. See pages 18-20 to learn more about your Medigap open enrollment period.

If you are disabled and working (or you have coverage from a working family member), the Medicare Part B Special Enrollment Period rules may also apply.

Remember, most people who sign up for Medicare Part B during a Special Enrollment Period do not pay higher premiums. However, if you are eligible but do not sign up for Medicare Part B during the Special Enrollment Period, you will only be able to sign up during the General Enrollment Period (see page 7), and the cost of Medicare Part B may go up.

For more information about signing up for Medicare Part A and Part B, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. TTY users should call 1-800-325-0778.

Section 2:

Medigap Policy Basics

“This section gave me the basic information I needed to know to buy a Medigap policy.”

-Carol

What Is A Medigap Policy?

A Medigap policy is a health insurance policy sold by private insurance companies to fill the “gaps” in Original Medicare Plan coverage.

There are 10 standardized Medigap plans called “A” through “J.” The front of a Medigap policy must clearly identify it as “Medicare Supplement Insurance.” Each plan A through J has a different set of benefits. Plan A covers only the basic (core) benefits (see page 13). These basic benefits are included in all the Plans, A through J. Plan J offers the most benefits.

When you buy a Medigap policy, you pay a premium to the insurance company. As long as you pay your premium, a policy bought after 1990 is automatically renewed each year. This means that your coverage continues year after year as long as you pay your premium. This premium is different than the Medicare Part B premium. You must also pay your monthly Medicare Part B premium.

However, in some states, insurance companies may refuse to renew Medigap policies that you bought before 1990. The law in these states did not say these policies had to be automatically renewed each year (guaranteed renewable) at the time these policies were sold.

Medigap policies only help pay health care costs if you have the Original Medicare Plan. You don’t need to buy a Medigap policy if you are in a Medicare + Choice plan. In fact, it is illegal for anyone to sell you a Medigap policy if they know you are in one of these plans.

If you have Medicaid, it is illegal for an insurance company to sell you a Medigap policy, except in certain situations (see page 60).

Can I Keep Seeing The Same Doctor If I Buy A Medigap Policy?

In most cases, yes. If you are in the Original Medicare Plan and you have a Medigap policy, you can go to any doctor, hospital, or other health care provider who accepts Medicare. But if you have the type of Medigap policy called Medicare SELECT, this is not the case. With Medicare SELECT, you must use specific hospitals and, in some cases, specific doctors to get your full insurance benefits.

If you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, different types of standardized Medigap plans are sold in your state. For more information, see pages 73-75.

What Is Medicare SELECT?

Medicare SELECT is a type of Medigap policy available in some states. If you buy a Medicare SELECT policy, you are buying one of the 10 standardized Medigap plans A through J. With a Medicare SELECT policy, you must use specific hospitals and, in some cases, specific doctors to get full insurance benefits (except in an emergency). For this reason, Medicare SELECT policies generally cost less.

A Medigap Policy Is Not...

- Coverage you get from your employer or union.
- A Medicare + Choice plan (like a Medicare managed care plan or Medicare Private Fee-for-Service plan).
- Medicare Part B.
- Medicaid.

Why Would I Want A Medigap Policy?

You may want to buy a Medigap policy because Medicare does not pay for all of your health care. There are “gaps” or costs that you must pay in the Original Medicare Plan. The chart on page 12 gives some examples of these gaps.

If you are in the Original Medicare Plan, a Medigap policy may help you:

- Lower your out-of-pocket costs.
- Get more health insurance coverage.

What you pay out-of-pocket in the Original Medicare Plan will depend on:

- Whether your doctor or supplier accepts “assignment” or takes Medicare’s approved amount as payment in full.
- How often you need health care.
- What type of health care you need.
- Whether you buy a Medigap policy.
- Which Medigap policy you buy.
- Whether you have other health insurance.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Section 2: Medigap Policy Basics

Note: Some Medigap policies also cover other extra benefits that are not covered by Medicare, like:

- Routine yearly check-ups.
- At-home recovery.
- Medicare Part B excess charges (the difference between your doctor's charge and Medicare's approved amount). The excess charge only applies if your doctor doesn't accept assignment.
- And more (see page 14).

You don't need a Medigap policy if you are in a Medicare + Choice plan.

What Medigap Policies Cover

Each standardized Medigap policy must cover basic (core) benefits (see below). Medigap policies pay most, if not all, of the Original Medicare Plan coinsurance and outpatient copayment amounts. These policies may also cover the Original Medicare Plan deductibles. Some of the policies cover extra benefits to help pay for more of those things that Medicare doesn't cover, like prescription drugs. If you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, see pages 73-75.

What Medigap Policies Don't Cover

- Long-term care
- Vision or dental care
- Hearing aids
- Private-duty nursing
- Unlimited prescription drugs

Who Can Buy A Medigap Policy?

To buy a Medigap policy, you generally must have Medicare Part A and Part B. If you are under age 65 and you are disabled or have End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD), you may not be able to buy a Medigap policy until you turn 65.

See pages 38-40 if you want to know more about Medigap policies for people under age 65.

Remember, Medigap policies only work with the Original Medicare Plan.

Medigap Plans A through J Basic (Core) Benefits

All Medigap plans must cover these basic (core) benefits (see page 14):

- The Medicare Part A coinsurance amount.
- The cost of 365 extra days of hospital care during your lifetime after Medicare coverage ends.
- The Medicare Part B coinsurance or copayment amount.
- The first 3 pints of blood each year.

If you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, see pages 73-75.

- For details about the Medigap plan extra benefits listed in the chart, see pages 24-25.
- This chart does not apply if you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, see pages 73-75.

How Much Do Medigap Policies Cost?

This Guide can't include actual costs for Medigap policies. As you shop for a Medigap policy, you will need to call insurance companies that sell Medigap policies in your state and ask about prices.

The cost for Medigap policies will be different depending on:

- Your age,
- Where you live, and
- The insurance company.

There can be big differences in the premiums that insurance companies charge for exactly the same coverage. When you compare premiums, be sure you are comparing the same Medigap policies.

Insurance companies have 3 different ways of pricing policies based on your age. In general, no-age-rated (also called community-rated) policies are the least expensive over your lifetime. For more details, see pages 34-35.

Other Factors That May Affect Your Cost:

- Whether you are male or female. Some companies offer discounts for females.
- Whether you smoke or not. Some companies offer discounts for non-smokers.
- Whether you are married or not. Some companies offer discounts for married couples.
- Medical Underwriting. This is a process that a company uses to review your health and medical history, and decide whether to accept your application for insurance.

With medical underwriting, you usually must answer medical questions on an application. You need to fill out this application carefully. Some companies may want to review your medical record before they sell you a policy. The company may use this information to add a waiting period for pre-existing conditions if your state law allows. The company may also use this information to decide how much to charge you for a Medigap policy. Insurance companies may “medically underwrite” any Medigap policy at times other than your Medigap open enrollment period (see page 18) or when you have the right to buy a Medigap policy (see page 41).

- Medical Underwriting. (continued)

- Whether you buy a High Deductible Option Policy.

Insurance companies may offer a “high deductible option” on Medigap Plans F and J (see chart on page 14). If you choose this option, you must pay a $1,620 deductible for the year 2002 before the plan pays anything. This amount can go up each year.

High deductible option policies often cost less, but if you get sick, your out-of-pocket costs will be higher and you may not be able to change plans.

In addition to the $1,620 (in 2002) deductible that you must pay for the high deductible option on Plans F and J, you must also pay deductibles for:

- Prescription drugs ($250 per year for Plan J), and
- Foreign travel emergency ($250 per year for Plans F and J).

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Other Factors That May Affect Your Cost: (continued)

- Whether you buy a Medicare SELECT Policy.

Medicare SELECT is a type of Medigap policy available in some states. If you buy a Medicare SELECT policy, you must use specific hospitals and, in some cases, specific doctors to get full insurance benefits (except in an emergency). For this reason, Medicare SELECT policies generally cost less.

If you don't use a Medicare SELECT hospital or doctor for non-emergency services, you will have to pay what Medicare doesn't pay. Medicare will pay its share of approved charges no matter what hospital or doctor you choose.

When Is The Best Time To Buy A Medigap Policy?

The best time to buy a Medigap policy is during your Medigap open enrollment period.

Your Medigap open enrollment period lasts for 6 months. It starts on the first day of the month in which you are both:

- Age 65 or older, and
- Enrolled in Medicare Part B.

Once the 6-month Medigap open enrollment period starts, it cannot be changed.

During this period, an insurance company cannot:

- Deny you insurance coverage,
- Place conditions on a policy (like making you wait for coverage to start), or
- Charge you more for a policy because of past or present health problems.

If you buy a Medigap policy during your Medigap open enrollment period, the insurance company must shorten the waiting period for pre-existing conditions by the amount of previous health coverage you have. This is called “creditable coverage.”

See page 36 for more information about pre-existing conditions. If you want to know more about creditable coverage, see page 37. If you are disabled or have End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD), see pages 38-40.

You can tell if you are in your Medigap open enrollment period by looking at your red, white, and blue Medicare card. This card shows the dates that your Medicare Part A and Part B coverage started. If you are age 65 or older, add 6 months to the date that your Medicare Part B coverage starts to figure out if you are in your Medigap open enrollment period. If that date is in the future, you are still in your Medigap open enrollment period. If that date is in the past, you have missed your Medigap open enrollment period (see example on page 19).

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

When Is The Best Time To Buy A Medigap Policy? (continued)

Medigap Open Enrollment Period Example:

It is October 1, 2002, and Mr. Rodriguez wants to buy a Medigap policy. He needs to know if he is in his open enrollment period. He looks at his Medicare card. His Medicare Part B coverage started August 1, 2002. To figure out if he is in his open enrollment period, he must add 6 months to his Medicare Part B start date and see if it is before or after the current date.

Mr. Rodriguez: August 1, 2002 + 6 months = January 31, 2003

Since it is October 1, 2002, he is still in his open enrollment period. Mr. Rodriguez has until January 31, 2003, to buy any Medigap policy during his Medigap open enrollment period.

Should I Enroll In Medicare Part B And Start My Medigap Open Enrollment Period If I Am Age 65 Or Older And Still Working?

You may want to wait to enroll in Medicare Part B if you or your spouse are working and have group health coverage through an employer or union based on your or your spouse's current or active employment. Your Medigap open enrollment period won't start until after you sign up for Medicare Part B. Remember, once you're age 65 or older and enrolled in Medicare Part B, the Medigap open enrollment period starts and cannot be changed.

What If I Enrolled In Medicare Part B and Did Not Use My Medigap Open Enrollment Period To Buy A Medigap Policy?

If you apply for a Medigap policy after your open enrollment period has ended, the Medigap insurance company is allowed to use medical underwriting to decide whether to accept your application, and how much to charge you for the policy. If you are in good health, the insurance company is likely to accept your application, but there is no guarantee that you will get the policy.

Steps To Buying A Medigap Policy

Buying a Medigap policy is an important decision. Only you can decide if a Medigap policy is the right kind of health insurance coverage for you. If you decide to buy a Medigap policy, shop carefully. Look for a policy that you can afford and that gives you the coverage you need most. As you shop for a Medigap policy, keep in mind that different insurance companies may charge different amounts for the same type of Medigap policy.

The steps to buy a Medigap policy are:

- Step 1: Look at how much you're spending on health care each year (see pages 21-22).
- Step 2: Think about your future health care needs, review the Medigap plans, and decide which benefits you want or need (see pages 23-26).
- Step 3: Find out which insurance companies sell Medigap policies in your state (see page 27).
- Step 4: Call the insurance companies and compare costs (see pages 28-29).
- Step 5: Choose the best Medigap policy for you (see page 30).
- Step 6: Buy the Medigap policy (see page 31).

Step 1. Look at how much you're spending on health care each year.

Use the worksheet on page 22 to write down your yearly expenses for health care. If you don't know your yearly expenses, use the worksheet to check off the health care costs and services you paid for (called out-of-pocket costs) (see "How To Use The Worksheet" below). This will help you decide which Medigap policy benefits you need. It will also help you when you begin to shop for the Medigap policy that's right for you.

Important: You should also think about your future health care needs. As you get older, your health care costs may increase.

How To Use The Worksheet

- Column 1 lists types of health care services that you may have paid for last year. You can also add other health care services that you paid last year (or previous years) that you may want to think about when choosing a Medigap policy. Write those services in the row marked "Other."

For Column 2:

- Write down the cost for the services you used and paid for last year, or place a check mark for health care costs you paid for.
- Look at the amounts in Column 2. Rows with the largest dollar or cost amounts are most likely the benefits you may need in a Medigap policy right now. Remember, you should also think about your future health care needs (see pages 24-25). For example:

Let's say you did not have a hospital stay last year, so you did not have to pay a Medicare Part A hospital deductible. Next year, or sometime in the future, you may end up in a hospital. If you did not buy a Medigap policy that covers the Medicare Part A hospital deductible, you will have to pay this cost for each benefit period ($812 in 2002).

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Yearly Health Care Cost Worksheet

Column 1	Column 2

Skilled Nursing Coinsurance up to $101.50 a day (in 2002) for days 21-100 in a skilled nursing facility.	$
Medicare Part A Hospital Deductible ($812 [in 2002] for days 1-60 of a hospital stay).	$

Other:	$

Step 2. Think about your future health care needs, review the Medigap plans, and decide which benefits you want or need.

If you decide to buy a Medigap policy, make sure it covers the benefits you want or need. You should also think about benefits you may need in the future. Think about your medical history, your family medical history, and health risks when thinking about future health care costs.

On the next two pages you'll find a worksheet you can use. If you complete this worksheet, you should have a good idea of the types of benefits you want to look for in a Medigap policy. The worksheet includes a list of extra benefits that different Medigap policies cover. Next to each benefit is a reason why you might want or need that benefit.

1. Put a check in the column "Do I want or need these extra benefits?" next to the extra benefits you need or want.
2. Turn to the chart on page 14 that lists all the Medigap plans and their benefits. On that chart, circle the benefits you checked on the worksheet.
3. Look at the benefits you circled on page 14, and find the plan that has most, if not all, of the benefits you need or want. Remember, all of the plans cover the basic benefits (see below). The plan you choose may not match your needs exactly. You may have to give up or buy extra benefits to get a plan that is close to what you want.

The basic (core) benefits included in all Medigap policies are:

- The Medicare Part A coinsurance amount for days 61-90 ($203 per day in 2002), and days 91-150 ($406 per day in 2002) of a hospital stay.
- 100% of the cost for up to 365 more days of a hospital stay during your lifetime after you use up all Medicare hospital benefits.
- The coinsurance or copayment amount for Medicare Part B services after you meet the $100 yearly deductible (in 2002).
- The first 3 pints of blood or equal amounts of packed red blood cells per calendar year, unless this blood is replaced.

Section 2: Medigap Policy Basics

Medigap policy extra benefits	Reasons you might want or need these extra benefits	Do I want or need these extra benefits?
Skilled Nursing Coinsurance Up to $101.50 a day (in 2002) for days 21-100 in a skilled nursing facility.	You may need this benefit if you have to go to a skilled nursing facility (SNF) after a hospital stay and stay in the SNF longer than 20 days.
Medicare Part A Hospital Deductible $812 for days 1-60 of a hospital stay (in 2002). This amount can change every year.	You may need this benefit if you have to stay in the hospital. You have to pay the Medicare Part A deductible each benefit period.
Medicare Part B Yearly Deductible $100 per year in 2002.	You may want to think about this benefit if you have Medicare Part B. Each year you must pay the Medicare Part B deductible before Medicare starts to pay its share. If you have this benefit, the Medigap policy would pay this amount each year.
Medicare Part B Excess Charge The difference between your doctor's actual charge and Medicare's approved amount, if your doctor does not accept assignment. Plans F, I, and J pay all of the excess charges. Plan G pays 80% of the excess charges.	You may want to think about this benefit if your doctors don't accept assignment. You may also want this benefit if you have to stay in the hospital and can't control whether the doctors you see accept assignment. Under federal law, doctors who don't take Medicare's approved amount as payment in full (accept "assignment"), may charge up to 15% more than the approved amount.
Foreign Travel Emergency 80% of the cost of emergency care during the first 60 days of each trip (after the $250 deductible). Up to $50,000 in your lifetime.	You may want to think about this benefit if you travel outside the United States. This benefit could save you money for emergency care.

Medigap policy extra benefits	Reasons you might want or need these extra benefits	Do I want or need these extra benefits?
At-Home Recovery The cost of at-home help with daily activities like bathing and dressing if you are already getting Medicare-covered home health visits. Up to 8 weeks of at-home help after skilled nursing care is no longer needed. Will pay up to $40 each visit and $1,600 each year.	This benefit covers additional care at home if you are already getting Medicare-covered home health services. This benefit may add to the cost of the policy, and you may not need it.
Prescription Drugs 50% of the drug costs that Medicare doesn't cover (after you pay a $250 per year deductible). Up to $1,250 each year under Plans H and I (Basic drug benefit). Up to $3,000 each year under Plan J (Extended drug benefit).	You may want to think about this benefit if you have high prescription drug costs. It covers half your drug costs after the yearly deductible up to a maximum amount. Therefore, to get the full benefit under Plans H and I, you should have at least $2,750 in drug costs in a year (you pay $1,250 plus $250; plan pays $1,250). To get the full benefit under Plan J, you should have at least $6,250 in drug costs in a year (you pay $3,000 plus $250; plan pays $3,000).
Preventive Care (such as routine yearly check-ups, serum cholesterol screening, hearing tests, diabetes screening, and thyroid function tests). Up to $120 each year.	This benefit helps pay for routine yearly check-ups and tests that may be important to you to keep you healthy.

Step 2. Think about your future health care needs, review the Medigap plans, and decide which benefits you want or need. (continued)

If you decide to buy a Medigap policy, make sure it covers the benefits you want or need. If you need help to decide which Medigap policy is best for you, call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see pages 79-80).

Note: If you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, see pages 73-75 for more information about the Medigap plans that are sold in your state. These states have different types of standardized Medigap plans.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Step 3. Find out which insurance companies sell Medigap policies in your state.

To find out which insurance companies sell Medigap policies in your state, you can:

- Call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see pages 79-80). Ask if they have a Medigap rate comparison shopping guide for your state. These types of guides usually list the insurance companies that sell Medigap policies in your state and compare the costs of policies for each company.
- Call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80).
- Look at www.medicare.gov on the Web. Select “Medicare Personal Plan Finder” (see page 40).

This website will help you find information on all your health plan options, including Medigap policies in your area. You can also get information on:

- ✓ Some companies that sell Medigap policies in your state.
- ✓ What the policies must cover.
- ✓ How insurance companies decide what to charge you for a Medigap policy premium.

If you don’t have a computer, your local library or senior center may be able to help you look at this information.

- Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). For English, press (1) or for Spanish, press (2). Select option “0.” A Customer Service Representative will help you get information on all your health plan options, including Medigap policies in your area. You will get your Medicare Personal Plan Finder results in the mail within three weeks. TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048.

You should plan to call more than one insurance company that sells Medigap policies in your state. Make sure the ones you choose to call are honest and reliable (see page 56).

Step 4. Call the insurance companies and compare costs.

Call different insurance companies and ask questions. Friends and relatives can tell you about their policies, but their policies may not fit your needs. Shop around for the best Medigap policy for you at a price you can afford.

Ask each insurance company the following questions:

- Is this insurance company licensed in this state? (The answer should be yes.)
- Which Medigap policies do you sell? (Make sure they sell the plan you want.)
- What is the cost of the Medigap policy I am interested in?
- How is this price decided?
 - What is the type of pricing used by the insurance company?
 - Does it make a difference if I am male or female?
 - Does it make a difference if I smoke or don't smoke?
 - Does it make a difference if I am married or single?
- Are there any additional ("innovative") benefits or discounts included in this policy?

If you are not in your Medigap open enrollment period or in a situation where you have a guaranteed issue right to buy a Medigap policy (see pages 41-48), ask:

- Will you accept my application?
- Do you review my health records or application to decide how much to charge me for a Medigap policy?
- Will I have to wait for my pre-existing conditions to be covered if I already have a health problem?

Use the comparison worksheet on page 29 to write down the insurance company answers. This will help you compare costs and benefits you are considering.

Medigap Policy Comparison Worksheet

Use this worksheet to compare costs and benefits you are considering. Make sure you get the agents' and the companies' names, addresses, and telephone numbers.

Ask each insurance company:	Insurance Company 1:	Insurance Company 2:	Insurance Company 3:
Is this insurance company licensed in this state? (The answer should be yes.)
Which Medigap policies do you sell? (Make sure they sell the plan you want.)
What is the cost of the Medigap policy I am interested in?
How is the price decided? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the type of pricing used by the insurance company? • Does it make a difference if I am male or female? • Does it make a difference if I smoke or don't smoke? • Does it make a difference if I am married or single?
Are there any additional ("innovative") benefits or discounts included in this policy?
If you are not in your Medigap open enrollment period or in a situation where you have guaranteed issue right, ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will you accept my application? • Do you review my health records or application to decide how much to charge me for a Medigap policy? • Will I have to wait for my pre-existing conditions to be covered if I already have a health problem?

Step 5. Choose the best Medigap policy for you.

After you call the insurance companies and compare their costs, choose the Medigap policy that is best for you.

But, before you make your final choice, make sure:

- ☐ You carefully review the Medigap policy benefits.
- ☐ You can afford the cost of the policy.
- ☐ The policy covers the benefits you need and want.
- ☐ You feel good about and trust the insurance company and/or the insurance agent.
- ☐ You talk with someone you trust, like a family member, friend, doctor, or insurance agent about your choice.

Once you've checked the items above, you are now ready to move on to Step 6.

Step 6. Buy the Medigap policy.

Once you have decided on the insurance company and the Medigap policy you want, you can buy your policy. The insurance company must give you a clearly worded summary of your Medigap policy. Read it carefully. If you don't understand it, ask questions. When you buy your Medigap policy:

- ☐ Fill out your application carefully and completely. Answer all of the medical questions. If the insurance agent fills out the application, review it to make sure it's correct.
- ☐ Don't buy more than one Medigap policy. If you already have a Medigap policy, it is illegal for an insurance company to sell you a second policy unless you put in writing that you are going to cancel the first Medigap policy. However, do not cancel your first Medigap policy until the second one is in place, and you decide to keep the second Medigap policy. You have 30 days to decide if you want to keep the new policy. This is called your "free look" period.
- ☐ Do not pay cash. Pay for your policy by check, money order, or bank draft. Make it payable to the insurance company, not the agent.
- ☐ Ask for your Medigap policy to become effective when you want coverage to start, or when your previous policy's coverage ends. If, for any reason, the insurance company will not give you the start date you want, call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80).
- ☐ Get a receipt with the insurance company's name, address, and telephone number for your records.
- ☐ Make sure you get your policy within 30 days. If you don't get your policy in 30 days, call your insurance company. If you don't get your policy in 60 days, call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80).

The Cost Of Medigap Policies: Ways Of Pricing Policies

Insurance companies have 3 different ways of pricing Medigap policies based on your age:

1. No-age-rated (also called community-rated)
2. Issue-age-rated
3. Attained-age-rated

1. No-age-rated (also called community-rated) policies

These policies charge everyone the same rate no matter how old they are.

Example*: Mrs. Smith pays the same monthly premium at each age plus any premium increases the company may charge because of inflation.

* Remember, all monthly premiums may change and go up each year because of inflation and rising health care costs.

Monthly Premium at Age 65	$155
Monthly Premium at Age 75	$155
Monthly Premium at Age 85	$155

2. Issue-age-rated policies

The monthly premium for these policies is based on your age when you first buy the policy. The cost does not automatically go up as you get older. Your premium will be the same as anyone buying a policy for the first time at your age.

Example*: Mrs. Smith pays the same monthly premium depending on how old she is when she buys the policy. She also pays any additional premium increase the company may charge because of inflation.

Buy Policy at Age 65

Monthly Premium at Age 65	$130
Monthly Premium at Age 75	$130
Monthly Premium at Age 85	$130

Buy Policy at Age 75

Monthly Premium at Age 65	--
Monthly Premium at Age 75	$165
Monthly Premium at Age 85	$165

The Cost Of Medigap Policies: Ways Of Pricing Policies (continued)

2. Issue-age-rated policies (continued)

Buy Policy at Age 85

Monthly Premium at Age 65	--
Monthly Premium at Age 75	--
Monthly Premium at Age 85	$195

* Remember, all monthly premiums may change and go up each year because of inflation and rising health care costs.

3. Attained-age-rated policies

The monthly premiums for these policies are based on your age each year. These policies generally cost less at age 65, but their costs go up automatically as you get older.

Example*: Mrs. Smith buys the policy at age 65, and pays higher monthly premiums as she gets older. She also pays any additional premium increases the company may charge because of inflation.

Monthly Premium at Age 65	$115
Monthly Premium at Age 75	$160
Monthly Premium at Age 85	$200

Caution: In general, attained-age-rated policies are cheaper than issue-age-rated policies the first few years you own the policy. However, rate increases for attained-age-rated policies are usually larger than rate increases for issue-age-rated policies. After a period of time, the premiums for an attained-age-rated policy will be higher than what the premiums would have been if you had an issue-age-rated policy.

Medigap Coverage Of Pre-existing Conditions

What Is A Pre-existing Condition?

A pre-existing condition is a health problem you had before the date a new insurance policy starts.

Will My Pre-existing Condition Be Covered If I Buy A Medigap Policy?

In some cases, a Medigap insurance company can refuse to cover health problems for up to 6 months, if you had the health problem before the policy started. This is called a “pre-existing condition waiting period.” The insurance company can only use this kind of waiting period if your health problem was diagnosed or treated during the 6 months before the policy started. This means that the insurance company cannot make you wait for coverage of a pre-existing condition just because it thinks you should have known to see a doctor for a health problem because of the symptoms you had.

Open Enrollment Period

If you buy a policy during your Medigap open enrollment period, and you had at least six months of previous health coverage, called “creditable coverage” (see page 37), the company cannot give you any pre-existing condition waiting period. If you had less than six months of creditable coverage, this waiting period will be reduced by the number of months of creditable coverage you had.

Special Medigap Protections (Guaranteed Issue Rights)

If you buy a Medigap policy when you have Medigap protections or guaranteed issue rights, the insurance company cannot use a pre-existing condition waiting period at all (see page 41).

If you are switching Medigap policies and want to know if you will have a pre-existing condition waiting period, see page 50.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Creditable Coverage

What Is Creditable Coverage?

Creditable coverage is any previous health coverage you have that can reduce the time you have to wait before your pre-existing health conditions will be covered by a policy you buy during your Medigap open enrollment period.

Your previous health coverage could have been any of the following:

- A group health plan (like an employer plan)
- A health insurance policy
- Medicare Part A or Medicare Part B
- Medicaid (see page 60)
- A medical program of the Indian Health Service or tribal organization
- A state health benefits risk pool
- TRICARE (the health care program for military dependents and retirees [see pages 65-66])
- The Federal Employees Health Benefit Plan
- A public health plan
- A health plan under the Peace Corps Act

Note: Whether you can use creditable coverage depends on whether you had any “breaks in coverage.” If there was any time that you had no health coverage of any kind, and during that time, you were without coverage for more than 63 days in a row, you can only count creditable coverage that you had after that break in coverage.

Creditable Coverage Example:

Mr. Smith is 65 and has heart disease. His Medicare Part A and Part B started November 1, 2001. Before this date, he had no health insurance coverage. On March 1, 2002, Mr. Smith buys a Medigap policy. His Medigap insurance company refuses to cover his heart disease condition for 6 months (the pre-existing condition waiting period). However, since Mr. Smith had Medicare Part A and Part B from November 1 to March 1, the insurance company must use his 4 months of Medicare coverage as creditable coverage to shorten this 6-month waiting period. Now his waiting period will only be 2 months instead of 6 months. During these 2 months, after Medicare pays its share, Mr. Smith will have to pay the rest of the costs for the care of his heart disease.

Medigap Policies For People Under Age 65 With A Disability Or End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD)

You may have Medicare before age 65 due to:

- A disability, or
- ESRD (permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or a kidney transplant).

If you are under age 65 and disabled or have ESRD, you may not be able to buy the Medigap policy you want until you turn 65. Federal law does not require insurance companies to sell Medigap policies to people under age 65. However, some states require insurance companies to sell you a policy, at certain times, even if you are under age 65.

During the first 6 months after you turn age 65 and are enrolled in Medicare Part B, you will get a Medigap open enrollment period. It does not matter that you have had Medicare Part B before you turned age 65. During this time:

- You can buy any Medigap policy (including those policies that help pay the cost of prescription drugs), and
- Insurance companies cannot refuse to sell you a Medigap policy due to a disability or other health problem, or charge you a higher premium than they charge other people who are 65 years old.

When you buy a policy during your Medigap open enrollment period, the insurance company must shorten the waiting period for pre-existing conditions by the amount of creditable coverage you have. If you had Medicare for more than 6 months before you turned 65 years old, you will not have a pre-existing condition waiting period because Medicare counts as creditable coverage.

Several states require Medigap insurance companies to offer a limited Medigap open enrollment period for people with Medicare Part B who are under age 65. At the time of this printing, the following states require insurance companies to offer at least one kind of Medigap policy during a special open enrollment period to people with Medicare under age 65:

- | | | |
|-----------------|-----------------|------------------|
| • California | • Michigan | • North Carolina |
| • Connecticut | • Minnesota | • Oklahoma |
| • Kansas | • Missouri | • Oregon |
| • Louisiana | • Mississippi | • Pennsylvania |
| • Maine | • New Hampshire | • South Dakota |
| • Maryland | • New Jersey | • Texas |
| • Massachusetts | • New York | • Wisconsin |

Also, some insurance companies will sell Medigap policies to people with Medicare under age 65. However, these policies may cost you more. Remember, if you live in a state that has a Medigap open enrollment period for people under age 65, you will still get another Medigap open enrollment period when you turn age 65.

Also, if you join a Medicare + Choice plan and your coverage ends, you may have the right to buy a Medigap policy (see “Special Note For People With Medicare Under Age 65” on page 48). If you have questions, you should call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see pages 79-80).

New right to suspend a Medigap policy for disabled people with Medicare

If you are under 65, have Medicare, and have a Medigap policy, you have a new right to suspend your Medigap policy. This new right lets you suspend your Medigap policy benefits and premiums, without penalty, while you are enrolled in your or your spouse’s employer group health plan. You can get your Medigap policy back at any time.

If, for any reason, you lose your employer group health plan coverage, you can get your Medigap policy back. You must notify your Medigap insurance company that you want your Medigap policy back within 90 days of losing your employer group health plan coverage.

“I wasn’t sure if I could buy a Medigap policy, so I called my State Health Insurance Assistance Program. They were very helpful and answered all of my questions.”

-Jim

Your Medigap benefits and premiums will start again on the day your employer group health plan coverage stopped. The Medigap policy must have the same benefits and premiums it would have had if you had never suspended your coverage. Your Medigap insurance company can't refuse to cover care for any pre-existing conditions you have. So, if you are disabled and working, you can enjoy the benefits of your employer's insurance without giving up your Medigap policy.

Information on Medicare Health Plans and Medigap Policies

Choosing the right health coverage is an important - but sometimes difficult - decision. The new "Medicare Personal Plan Finder" helps you find information on your health plan options, including Medigap policies in your area. You will be able to get information about some of the insurance companies that sell Medigap policies in your state, how to contact these insurance companies, and, in some cases, how to compare your Medigap policy choices.

You can get information three ways:

1. Visit www.medicare.gov on the Web for fast results. Select "Medicare Personal Plan Finder."
2. Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). For English, press (1) or for Spanish, press (2). Select option "0." A Customer Service Representative will help you. You will get your Medicare Personal Plan Finder results in the mail within three weeks.

Your Rights To Buy A Medigap Policy

If you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, you have the same rights to buy a Medigap policy. If you have questions, call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80).

In some situations, you have the right to buy a Medigap policy outside of your Medigap open enrollment period. These rights are called “Medigap Protections.” They are also called guaranteed issue rights because the law says that insurance companies must issue you a policy.

Medigap protections are important because without them, if you are not in your Medigap open enrollment period, an insurance company can refuse to sell you a policy, or you may be charged more for the policy. In addition, if you drop your Medigap policy, you may not be able to get it back except in very limited circumstances.

In many cases, these rights apply when your health coverage changes. Remember, it is best not to wait until your current health coverage has almost ended before you apply for a Medigap policy. You can apply for a Medigap policy early (for example, while you are still in your health plan) and choose to start your Medigap coverage the day after your health plan coverage ends. This will prevent gaps in your health coverage.

Summary of Medigap Protections (Guaranteed Issue Rights)

There are a few situations involving health coverage changes where you may have a guaranteed issue right to buy a Medigap policy.

In these situations, an insurance company:

- can’t deny you Medigap coverage or place conditions on a policy (like making you wait for coverage to start).
- must cover you for all pre-existing conditions.
- can’t charge you more for a policy because of past or present health problems.

The following page has a summary of these situations (see page 42). In order to get these Medigap protections, you must meet certain conditions. More detailed information on each situation will follow the summary. All rights to buy Medigap policies in the following situations include Medicare SELECT policies since they are a type of Medigap policy.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Summary of Medigap Protections (continued)

Important: In some situations, you have a guaranteed issue right to buy a Medigap policy because you lost certain kinds of health coverage. You should keep a copy of any letters, notices, and claim denials you get. Be sure to keep anything that has your name on it. Also, keep the postmarked envelope these papers come in. You may need to send a copy of some or all of these papers with your application for a Medigap policy to prove you lost coverage and have the right to these protections. The Medigap protections in this section are from federal law. Many states provide more Medigap protections than federal law. Call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program or State Insurance Department for more information (see pages 79-80).

Situation #1 : Your Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program coverage ends because the plan is leaving the Medicare program or stops giving care in your area, see pages 43-44.

Situation #2 : Your employer group health plan coverage ends, see page 44.

Situation #3 : Your health coverage ends because you move out of the plan's service area, see page 45.

Situation #4 : You joined a Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program when you were first eligible for Medicare at age 65. Within the first year of joining, you decide you want to leave, see page 45.

Situation #5 : You dropped a Medigap policy to join a Medicare + Choice plan, Medicare SELECT policy, or PACE program for the first time and now you want to leave. You have been in the plan less than a year, see page 46.

Situation #6 : Your Medigap insurance company goes bankrupt and you lose your coverage, or your Medigap policy coverage ends through no fault of your own, see page 46.

Situation #7 : You leave your plan because your Medicare + Choice plan, or Medicare SELECT, or Medigap insurance company has committed fraud. For example, the marketing materials were misleading, or quality standards were not met, see page 47.

Note: There may be times when more than one situation applies to you. When this happens, you can choose the protection that gives you the best choice of policies.

Medigap Protections

Situation #1: Your Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program coverage ends because the plan is leaving the Medicare program or stops giving care in your area.

In this situation, your Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program sends you a letter telling you that you will no longer be covered by the plan. This may be because the plan is leaving the Medicare program or stops giving care in your area. If this happens, you have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state by any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems.

You can apply for a Medigap policy as soon as you get the final notification letter from your plan. When you get this letter telling you that your plan is leaving the Medicare program or will no longer give care in your area, you may have three choices:

1. Switch to another Medicare + Choice plan in your area. The final notification letter will tell you if there are other plans available in your area. In some cases, you may have to wait until the new plan you want to join is accepting new members. If you join a new Medicare + Choice plan when your current plan coverage ends, you will not need (or be able to use) a Medigap policy.
2. Leave your Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program (disenroll) any time between the date you get your final notification letter and when your health coverage ends. Unless you join another Medicare + Choice plan, you will automatically return to the Original Medicare Plan when you leave (disenroll from) your plan or PACE program. You have 63 calendar days from the day you leave your plan or PACE program to apply for a Medigap policy.
3. Stay in your plan or PACE program until the date your coverage ends. Unless you join another Medicare + Choice plan, you will automatically return to the Original Medicare Plan when your coverage ends. You have 63 calendar days after your health coverage ends to apply for a Medigap policy.

The Programs of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) combines medical, social, and long-term care services for frail people. PACE is available only in states that choose to offer it under Medicaid. For more information about PACE, see page 61.

Situation #1: Your Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program coverage ends because the plan is leaving the Medicare program or stops giving care in your area. (continued)

Important: You will have additional rights under Situation #4 (see page 45) or Situation #5 (see page 46) if this was the first time you were in a Medicare + Choice plan, you were in the plan less than one year before the plan left the Medicare program or stopped giving care in your area, and you choose to return to the Original Medicare Plan and apply for a Medigap policy. If instead, you immediately join another Medicare + Choice plan, you can stay in that plan for up to one year and still have the rights described in Situations #4 and #5.

Situation #2: Your employer group health plan coverage ends.

You are in an employer group health plan that pays some or all of the costs not paid by Medicare, but plan coverage ends because the employer goes out of business or cancels your company coverage. You have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state by any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems.

You may get a letter or a notice from your employer, the health plan, or insurance company telling you your coverage has been or will be cancelled. You have 63 calendar days from the date your coverage ends or from the date on the letter or notice (whichever is later) to apply for a Medigap policy. In some cases, you will not get a notice, but you may get a claim denial because your coverage has ended. If this happens, this claim denial is the same as a letter telling you that your coverage has ended. Remember, keep a copy of the letter, notice, claim denial, and postmarked envelope. You may need these papers to prove you lost coverage. You will need to send a copy of the letter, notice, or claim denial with your application in order to buy a Medigap policy.

Situation #3: Your health coverage ends because you move out of the plan's service area.

If you have health coverage from a Medicare + Choice plan, a Medicare SELECT policy, or you are in a PACE program, and you move out of the plan's service area, you will have to end your coverage. You have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state, or the state you are moving to, from any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems.

You must tell your current plan that you are moving and give them a date when you will end your coverage. You can apply for a Medigap policy as early as 60 calendar days before the date your health coverage ends. Remember, you must apply for a Medigap policy no later than 63 calendar days after your health coverage ends.

Situation #4: You joined a Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program when you were first eligible for Medicare at age 65. Within the first year of joining, you decide you want to leave.

If this happens, you have the right to buy any Medigap policy that is sold in your state by any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems. You must tell the plan that you want to leave (disenroll) and give them a date to end your coverage. You will have from 60 calendar days before your coverage ends until 63 calendar days after your coverage ends to apply for a new Medigap policy.

Your rights under this situation may last for an extra 12 months if the plan you first joined leaves the Medicare program or stops giving care in your area before you have been in the plan for one year, AND you immediately join another Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program.

Situation #5: You dropped a Medigap policy to join a Medicare + Choice plan, Medicare SELECT policy, or PACE program for the first time and now you want to leave. You have been in the plan less than a year.

If this happens, you have the right to go back to your former Medigap policy, only if the same insurance company still sells it. You need to tell the Medicare + Choice plan, PACE program, or Medicare SELECT policy that you want to leave (disenroll) and give them a date to end your coverage. This date must be before you have been in the plan for a year.

If your former Medigap policy is not available, you have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state by any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems. You will have from 60 calendar days before your coverage ends until 63 calendar days after your coverage ends to apply for a new Medigap policy.

Your rights under this situation may last for an extra 12 months if the plan you first joined leaves the Medicare program or stops giving care in your area before you have been in the plan for one year, AND you immediately join another Medicare + Choice plan or PACE program.

Situation #6: Your Medigap insurance company goes bankrupt and you lose your coverage, or your Medigap policy coverage ends through no fault of your own.

If this happens, you have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state by any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems. You will have 63 calendar days from the date your coverage ends to apply for a new Medigap policy.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Situation #7: You leave your plan because your Medicare + Choice plan, or Medicare SELECT, or Medigap insurance company has committed fraud.

In this situation, you leave the health plan because it failed to meet its contract obligations to you. For example, the marketing materials were misleading, or quality standards were not met. Generally, you must have filed a grievance with the health plan, Medicare, or the State Insurance Department and received a favorable decision that the plan was at fault before you have this right.

If this happens, you have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state by any insurance company. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems. You must tell the plan that you want to leave (disenroll) and give them a date to end your coverage. You will have 63 calendar days from the date your coverage ends to apply for a new Medigap policy.

Remember, some states provide more Medigap protections. Your state may let you choose from more Medigap plans or give you a longer time to apply for a Medigap policy when you lose your coverage. Call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see pages 79-80).

If you live in Massachusetts, Minnesota, or Wisconsin, you have the same rights to buy a Medigap policy. If you have questions, call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80).

Special Note For People With Medicare Under Age 65:

If you are in a situation that gives you the right to buy a Medigap policy, you must be allowed to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state to people under age 65. You can buy the policy at the best premium price available, with no review of your medical records even if you have health problems. However, there is no federal law that says insurance companies must sell Medigap plans to people under age 65. If an insurance company does sell these Medigap policies to anyone under age 65, they must sell one to you if you are in one of these situations.

If you have ESRD and are in a Medicare + Choice plan, and the plan leaves Medicare or no longer provides coverage in your area, you can join another Medicare + Choice plan if one is available in your area. This is true for people whose plans left Medicare or stopped providing coverage in their area on or after December 31, 1998.

Where To Get More Information About Medigap Protections

- Call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see pages 79-80) to make sure that you qualify for these Medigap protections. They can also help you find the Medigap policy that's right for you.
- Call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80) if you are denied Medigap coverage.

Losing Medigap Coverage

Can My Medigap Insurance Company Drop Me?

In most cases, no. If you bought your Medigap policy after 1990, the law says that your insurance company must let you renew your Medigap policy as long as you pay your premium. This means that the policy is guaranteed renewable. Your insurance company can drop you if you lie (for example, you commit fraud under the policy). Other than that, there is only one situation where you may lose a Medigap guaranteed renewable policy: if the insurance company goes bankrupt. If this happens, and state law does not make some other coverage available, you have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state (see Medigap Protections, Situation #6 on page 46).

Insurance companies in some states may refuse to renew Medigap policies that you bought before 1990. In order for an insurance company to refuse to renew one of these older Medigap policies, the company must get the state's approval and cancel all policies of this type that they sell in your state. If this happens, you have the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in your state (see example below and Medigap Protections, Situation #6 on page 46).

Example:

In 1987, Mr. Jones bought a Medigap policy from Company X. The Medigap policy Mr. Jones bought is not guaranteed renewable because he bought it before 1990, and it did not say it was guaranteed renewable. Company X will not renew Mr. Jones's policy because it is no longer being offered. The company is canceling all policies of this type in the state. Therefore, Mr. Jones has the right to buy Medigap plan A, B, C, or F that is sold in his state.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Switching Medigap Policies

Do I Have To Switch If I Have An Older Medigap Policy?

No. If you have an older Medigap policy, you can keep it. You don't have to switch it for one of the newer standardized Medigap plans. But, if you decide to switch your Medigap policy, you will not be able to go back to your older Medigap policy if you bought it before 1992 when standardized policies were first sold.

What Should I Do Before Switching My Medigap Policy?

Before switching policies, compare benefits and premiums. Some of the older Medigap policies may offer better coverage, especially for prescription drugs and long-term care. On the other hand, older Medigap policies may have bigger premium increases than newer standardized Medigap policies.

Do I Have To Wait A Certain Length Of Time Before I Can Switch To A Different Medigap Policy?

No, but the length of time you had your policy will affect how your new policy covers you for pre-existing conditions.

Your new Medigap policy generally must cover all pre-existing conditions if you've had your current policy at least 6 months.

Your new Medigap policy might not cover all pre-existing conditions if you've had your current Medigap policy for less than 6 months. However, the amount of time you've had your current Medigap policy must count towards the amount of time you must wait before your new policy covers your pre-existing condition.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Do I Have To Wait A Certain Length Of Time Before I Can Switch To A Different Medigap Policy? (continued)

If there is a benefit in the new Medigap policy that was not in your older policy, the company can make you wait up to 6 months before covering that benefit.

How Your Bills Get Paid

Does The Medigap Insurance Company Pay My Doctor Or Provider Directly?

When you have a Medigap policy, the insurance company must pay your doctor or provider directly when:

- Your doctor or provider has signed an agreement with Medicare to accept assignment of all Medicare claims for all their Medicare patients, and
- You tell your doctor's office to put on the Medicare claim form that you want Medigap insurance benefits paid to the doctor or supplier. Your doctor should put your Medigap policy number and the company name on the Medicare claim form. You will need to sign the claim form or have your doctor keep your signature on record. Make sure this information is correct.

When these conditions are met, the Medicare carrier will process the claim and send it to the Medigap insurance company. A Medicare carrier is a private company that has a contract with Medicare to pay Part B bills. The carrier will send you a Medicare Summary Notice (MSN) or an Explanation of Medicare Benefits (EOMB). Your Medigap insurance company will pay your doctor or provider directly and then send you a notice. If you don't get this notice, you may ask your Medigap insurance company for it.

In most cases, Medicare claims are sent directly to the insurance company, even if the doctor does not accept assignment on all claims.

If Your Doctor Is Not Paid Directly

If the Medigap insurance company does not pay your doctor directly when the above two conditions are met, you should report this to your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80). For more information on Medigap claim filing by the carrier, call your Medicare carrier. Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) to get the telephone number of the Medicare carrier in your state. TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Private Contracts

What Is A Private Contract?

A private contract is an agreement between you and a doctor who has decided not to give services through the Medicare program. The private contract only applies to the services given by the doctor who asked you to sign it.

If I Sign A Private Contract With My Doctor, Will Medicare And My Medigap Policy Pay?

Medicare and Medigap policies will not pay for the services you get from the doctor with whom you have a private contract. You cannot be asked to sign a private contract in an emergency or urgent health situation.

Note: You still have the right to see other Medicare doctors for services.

If you sign a private contract with your doctor:

- Medicare won't pay any amount for the services you get from this doctor.
- Your Medigap policy, if you have one, will not pay anything for this service.
- You will have to pay whatever this doctor or provider charges you for the services you get. Medicare's limiting charge will not apply.
- Medicare + Choice plans will not pay for these services.
- No claim should be submitted, and Medicare will not pay if one is submitted.
- Many other insurance plans will not pay for the services either. Call your insurance company before you get the service if you have any questions.
- Your doctor must tell you whether Medicare would pay for the service if you get it from another doctor who participates in Medicare.
- Your doctor must tell you if he or she has been excluded from the Medicare program.

You may want to talk with someone in your State Health Insurance Assistance Program before signing a private contract (see pages 79-80).

Private Contracts (continued)

You can always choose to get services not covered under Medicare and pay for these services yourself. In this case, you do not have to sign a private contract, and your doctor does not have to stop giving services through Medicare.

Watch Out for Illegal Insurance Practices

It is illegal for anyone to:

- Pressure you into buying a Medigap policy, or lie to you or mislead you to get you to switch from one company or policy to another.
- Sell you a second Medigap policy when they know that you already have one, unless you tell the insurance company in writing that you plan to cancel your existing Medigap policy.
- Sell you a Medigap policy if they know you have Medicaid, except in certain situations (see page 60).
- Sell you a Medigap policy if they know you are enrolled in a Medicare + Choice plan.
- Claim that a Medigap policy is part of the Medicare program or any other federal program.
- Sell you a Medigap policy that can't legally be sold in your state. Some Medigap insurance companies use direct mail advertising to sell policies. Check with your State Insurance Department to make sure that the Medigap plan you are interested in can be sold in your state.
- Misuse the names, letters, symbols, or emblems of the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Social Security Administration (SSA), Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), or any of their various programs like Medicare.

If you believe that a federal law has been broken, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. In most cases, however, your State Insurance Department can help you with insurance-related problems (see pages 79-80).

Ways To Check If An Insurance Company Is Reliable

Buying a Medigap policy is an important decision. You want to make sure that you are buying from a reliable insurance company. To help you find out if an insurance company is reliable, you can:

- Call the State Insurance Department in your state (see pages 79-80). Ask if they keep a record of complaints against insurance companies and whether these can be shared with you.
- Go to your local public library. Your local public library can help you:
 - Get information on an insurance company's financial strength by independent rating services such as, Weiss Rating, Inc., A.M. Best, and Standard & Poors.
 - Look at information on the Web.
- Talk to someone you trust, like your insurance agent or a friend who has a Medigap policy.
- Call the State Health Insurance Assistance Program in your state (see pages 79-80). These programs can give you free help with buying a Medigap policy.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

Section 4:

Other Insurance and Ways To Pay Health Care Costs

“This section has helpful information about paying for your health care.”

-Ana Maria

There are other kinds of health coverage, besides a Medigap policy, that may pay for some of your health care costs not covered by Medicare. They include:

1. Medicare Savings Programs (help from your state) (see page 59)
2. Medicaid (see page 60)
3. The PACE Program (Programs of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly) (see page 61)
4. Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs) (see page 62)
5. Home and Community-Based Service/Waiver Programs (HCBS) (see page 62)
6. Employee or Retiree Coverage From an Employer or Union (see page 63)
7. COBRA Coverage (see pages 63-64)
8. Long-Term Care Insurance (see page 65)
9. Veterans' Benefits (see page 65)
10. TRICARE for Life/Military Retiree Benefits (see pages 65-66)
11. Prescription Drug Assistance Programs (see page 66)
12. Hospital Indemnity Insurance (see page 66)
13. Specified Disease Insurance (see page 66)

For more information about these kinds of health insurance and ways to pay health care costs, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. Ask for a free copy of the Health Care Coverage Directory for People with Medicare (CMS Pub. No. 02231) and Medicare and Other Health Benefits: Your Guide to Who Pays First (CMS Pub. No. 02179). You can also read or print a copy of these booklets at www.medicare.gov on the Web. Select "Publications."

1. Medicare Savings Programs (Help From Your State)

There are programs that help millions of people with Medicare save money each year. States have programs for people with limited income and resources that pay some or all of Medicare's premiums. Some programs may also pay Medicare deductibles and coinsurance.

You can apply for these programs if:

- You have Medicare Part A. (If you pay a premium for Medicare Part A but don't think you can afford to keep paying it, there is a program that may pay the Medicare Part A premium for you.), and
- You are a person with resources of $4,000 or less, or a couple with resources of $6,000 or less. Resources include things like money in a checking or savings account, stocks, or bonds, and
- You are a person with a monthly income of less than $1,313,* or a couple with a monthly income of less than $1,762.*

* Income limits will change slightly in 2003. If you live in Alaska or Hawaii, income limits are slightly higher.

Note: Individual states may have more generous income and/or resource requirements.

Call your State Medical Assistance Office and ask for information on Medicare Savings Programs. Look in the "blue pages" section of your local telephone directory for the telephone number. Or, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. It's very important to call if you think you qualify for any of these Medicare Savings Programs, even if you aren't sure.

Insure Kids Now

Free or low-cost health insurance is available now in your state for uninsured children under age 19. Call toll-free, 1-877-KIDS-NOW (1-877-543-7669) for more information.

Medicare Savings Programs may not be available in Guam, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

2. Medicaid

Medicaid is a joint federal and state program that helps pay medical costs for some people with limited incomes and resources. Most of your health care costs are covered if you have Medicare and Medicaid. Medicaid programs vary from state to state. People with Medicaid may get coverage for nursing home care and outpatient prescription drugs that are not covered by Medicare. For more information about Medicaid, call your State Medical Assistance Office.

What should I do if I have a Medigap policy and then go on Medicaid?

You have the right to suspend the Medigap policy rather than dropping it while you are on Medicaid. However, in some cases, it may not be a good idea to suspend your Medigap policy. Call your State Medical Assistance Office to help you with this decision.

If you do suspend your policy, while it is suspended, you do not pay premiums and it will not pay benefits. You can only suspend a Medigap policy for up to two years. At the end of the suspension, you can start it up again without new medical underwriting or pre-existing condition waiting periods. Call your insurance company to find out how to suspend a policy.

Can An Insurance Company Sell Me A Medigap Policy If I Already Have Medicaid?

If you have Medicaid, an insurance company can sell you a Medigap policy only in certain situations (see chart below).

If Medicaid pays your Medigap policy premium...	The insurance company can legally sell you any Medigap policy
If Medicaid pays your Medicare premiums, deductibles, or coinsurance...	The insurance company can legally sell you Medigap plans H, I, or J
If Medicaid only pays all or part of your Medicare Part B premium...	The insurance company can legally sell you any Medigap policy

In any other situation, it is illegal for an insurance company to sell you a Medigap policy if you have Medicaid.

3. The PACE Program (Programs of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly)

PACE combines medical, social, and long-term care services for frail people. PACE is available only in states that have chosen to offer it under Medicaid. To be eligible, you must:

- Be age 55 or older,
- Live in the service area of a PACE program,
- Be certified as eligible for nursing home care by the appropriate state agency, and
- Be able to live safely in the community.

If you are enrolled in a PACE program, you may have to pay a monthly premium depending on your Medicare or Medicaid eligibility.

Services are given by a team of health care professionals. The services are usually given in a PACE center and include home and transportation services. Services include primary health services, physical and occupational therapy, social services, personal care and support services, nutrition counseling, and meals. The goal of PACE is to help people stay independent and living in their community as long as possible, while getting the high quality care they need.

To find a PACE site near you, or for more information, call your State Medical Assistance Office. Look in the “blue pages” section of your local telephone directory for the telephone number. Or, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. You can also look on the Web at www.medicare.gov/Nursing/Alternatives/PACE.asp for PACE locations and telephone numbers.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

4. Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs)

These are special health centers that can give you routine health care at a lower cost. FQHCs may include:

- A community health center,
- Tribal health clinic,
- Migrant health service, and
- Health center for the homeless.

To find the FQHC nearest you, look at www.medicare.gov on the Web. Select “Helpful Contacts.” Or, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. Ask for the telephone number of the Primary Care Association in your state.

5. Home and Community-Based Service/Waiver Programs (HCBS)

The HCBS programs offer different choices to some people with Medicaid. If you qualify, you will get care in your home and community so you can stay independent and close to your family and friends. HCBS programs help the elderly and disabled, mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, and certain other disabled adults. These programs give quality and low cost services.

To get more information on HCBS programs, services, and who is eligible in your state, call your State Medical Assistance Office. Look in the “blue pages” section of your local telephone directory for the telephone number. Or, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048. You can also look on the Web at www.medicare.gov. Select “Helpful Contacts.” Select the state you want and select “Other Health Insurance Programs.”

6. Employee or Retiree Coverage From an Employer or Union

Call your benefits administrator to find out if you have or can get health care coverage based on your or your spouse's past or current employment. Since this kind of health coverage is not a Medigap policy, the rules that apply to Medigap policies do not apply.

Note: When you have retiree coverage from an employer or union, they have control over this coverage. They may change the benefits or premiums, and may also cancel the coverage if they choose.

Caution: If you drop your employer or union group health coverage, you may not be able to get it back. For more information, call your benefits administrator.

Important: If the employer or union health coverage ends, you may have the right to buy a Medigap policy. Your employer or union must tell you within 60 calendar days after the date your coverage ends. If they don't, then your only notice that your coverage has ended could be a letter telling you that your claim for payment has been denied, or that a claim your doctor sent in for payment was denied (see Medigap Protections, Situation #2 on page 44).

7. COBRA Coverage

COBRA (The Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985) is a law that lets employees and their dependents keep their group health coverage for a time after they leave their group health plan under certain conditions. This is called "continuation coverage."

You may have this right if you lose your job or have your working hours reduced. You may also have this right if you are covered under your spouse's plan and your spouse dies or you get divorced.

COBRA generally lets you and your dependents keep the group coverage for 18 months (or up to 29 or 36 months in some cases). You may have to pay both your share and the employer's share of the premium.

Words in purple are defined on pages 82-85.

This law only applies to employers with 20 or more employees. Some state laws require employers with less than 20 employees to let you keep your group health coverage for a time. You can call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80) to find out if your state has this law or to get more information about group health coverage under COBRA. In most situations that give you COBRA rights, other than a divorce, you should get a notice from your benefits administrator. If you don't get a notice, or if you get divorced, you should call your benefits administrator as soon as possible.

Medicare and Continuation Coverage Under COBRA

For more information about COBRA, look at www.dol.gov/pwba/public/health.htm on the Web.

If you already have continuation coverage under COBRA when you enroll in Medicare, your COBRA may end. This is because the employer has the option of canceling the continuation coverage at this time. The length of time your spouse may get coverage under COBRA may change when you enroll in Medicare.

However, if you choose COBRA coverage after you enroll in Medicare, you can keep your continuation coverage. If you only have Medicare Part A when your group health plan coverage ends (based on current or active employment), you can enroll in Medicare Part B during a special enrollment period without having to pay a Medicare Part B premium penalty. This means you have to sign up for Medicare Part B within 8 months after your group health coverage ends or whenever employment ends, whichever is first (see pages 7-8). You will not get another Special Enrollment Period once COBRA coverage ends.

Remember, once you're age 65 or older and enrolled in Medicare Part B, the Medigap open enrollment period starts and cannot be changed (see page 18).

State law may give you the right to continue your coverage under COBRA beyond the point COBRA coverage would ordinarily end. Your rights will depend on what is allowed under the state law. For more information about your state's law, call your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80).

8. Long-Term Care Insurance

This kind of insurance is sold by private insurance companies and usually covers medical care and non-medical care to help you with your personal daily needs, such as bathing, dressing, using the bathroom, and eating. Generally, Medicare does not pay for long-term care. For more information about long-term care insurance, get a copy of A Shopper's Guide to Long-Term Care Insurance from either your State Insurance Department (see pages 79-80) or the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, 2301 McGee Street, Suite 800, Kansas City, MO 64108-3600. You may also get a free copy of Choosing Long-Term Care (CMS Pub. No. 02223) by calling 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048.

9. Veterans' Benefits

If you are a Veteran, call the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs at 1-800-827-1000 for information about Veterans' benefits and services available in your area.

10. TRICARE for Life/Military Retiree Benefits

TRICARE for Life (TFL) provides expanded medical coverage for: Medicare-eligible uniformed services retirees, including retired National Guard members and reservists; Medicare-eligible family members and widow/widowers; and certain former spouses if they were eligible for TRICARE before age 65. You must have Medicare Part B to be eligible for TFL.

If eligible, you get all Medicare-covered benefits under the Original Medicare Plan, plus all TFL-covered benefits.

10. TRICARE for Life/Military Retiree Benefits (continued)

If you use a Medicare provider, Medicare will be the first payer for all Medicare-covered services, and TFL will be the second payer. TFL will generally pay all Medicare copayments and deductibles and cover most of the costs of certain care not covered by Medicare. For more information on TFL, call 1-888-DOD-LIFE (1-888-363-5433) or look at www.TRICARE.osd.mil on the Web. Call 1-800-538-9552 for other military retiree benefit questions.

11. Prescription Drug Assistance Programs

There are programs that may offer you discounts or free medication. For more information, look at www.medicare.gov on the Web. Select “Prescription Drug Assistance Programs.” If you don’t have a computer, your local senior center or library may be able to help you get this information. Or, call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) and ask for information about these programs. TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048.

12. Hospital Indemnity Insurance

This kind of insurance pays a certain cash amount for each day you are in the hospital up to a certain number of days. It does not fill gaps in your Medicare coverage. Remember, Medicare and any Medigap policy you have will very likely cover costs from any hospital stay you have. Therefore, you may not need this insurance.

Note: This kind of insurance is not considered creditable coverage.

13. Specified Disease Insurance

This kind of insurance pays benefits for only a single disease, such as cancer, or for a group of diseases. It does not fill gaps in your Medicare coverage. Remember, Medicare and any Medigap policy you have will very likely cover costs from any specific disease you have. Therefore, you may not need this insurance.

Note: This kind of insurance is not considered creditable coverage.

Section 7:

Words To Know

"I used this section to look up words I didn't know."
-Catherine

Section 7: Words To Know

Assignment: In the Original Medicare Plan, this means a doctor agrees to accept Medicare's fee as full payment. If you are in the Original Medicare Plan, it can save you money if your doctor accepts assignment. You still pay your share of the cost of the doctor's visit.

Benefit Period: The way that Medicare measures your use of hospital and skilled nursing facility services. A benefit period begins the day you go to a hospital or skilled nursing facility. The benefit period ends when you haven't received hospital or skilled nursing care for 60 days in a row. If you go into the hospital after one benefit period has ended, a new benefit period begins. You must pay the inpatient hospital deductible for each benefit period. There is no limit to the number of benefit periods you can have.

Coinsurance: The percent of the Medicare-approved amount that you have to pay after you pay the deductible for Part A and/or Part B. In the Original Medicare Plan, the coinsurance payment is a percentage of the cost of the service (like 20%).

Copayment: In some Medicare health plans, the amount you pay for each medical service, like a doctor visit. A copayment is usually a set amount you pay for a service. For example, this could be $5 or $10 for a doctor visit. Copayments are also used for some hospital outpatient services in the Original Medicare Plan.

Deductible: The amount you must pay for health care, before Medicare begins to pay, either for each benefit period for Part A, or each year for Part B. These amounts can change every year.

Durable Medical Equipment (DME): Medical equipment that is ordered by a doctor for use in the home. These items must be reusable, such as walkers, wheelchairs, or hospital beds. DME is paid for under Medicare Part B, and you pay 20% coinsurance in the Original Medicare Plan.

Durable Medical Equipment Regional Carrier (DMERC): A private company that contracts with Medicare to pay bills for durable medical equipment.

End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD): Kidney failure that is severe enough to require lifetime dialysis or a kidney transplant.

Excess Charges*: The difference between a doctor's or other health care provider's actual charge (which may be limited by Medicare or the state) and the Medicare-approved payment amount.

Fiscal Intermediary: A private company that has a contract with Medicare to pay Part A and some Part B bills. (Also called "Intermediary.")

Guaranteed Issue Rights (also called "Medigap Protections"): Rights you have in certain situations when insurance companies are required by law to sell or offer you a Medigap policy. In these situations, an insurance company can't deny you insurance coverage or place conditions on a policy, must cover you for all pre-existing conditions, and can't charge you more for a policy because of past or present health problems.

* This definition in whole or in part was used with permission from Walter Feldesman, Esq., "Dictionary of Eldercare Terminology 2000."

Guaranteed Renewable: A right you have that requires your insurance company to allow you to automatically renew or continue your Medigap policy, unless you commit fraud or do not pay your premiums.

Home Health Care: Skilled nursing care and certain other health care you get in your home for the treatment of an illness or injury.

Hospice Care: A special way of caring for people who are terminally ill, and for their family. This care includes physical care and counseling. Hospice care is covered under Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance).

Lifetime Reserve Days: Sixty days that Medicare will pay for when you are in a hospital for more than 90 days. These 60 reserve days can be used only once during your lifetime. For each lifetime reserve day, Medicare pays all covered costs except for a daily coinsurance ($406 in 2002).

Limiting Charge: The highest amount of money you can be charged for a covered service by doctors and other health care providers who don't accept assignment. The limit is 15% over Medicare's approved amount. The limiting charge only applies to certain services and does not apply to supplies or equipment.

Long-Term Care: A variety of services that help people with health or personal needs and activities of daily living over a long period of time. Long-term care can be provided at home, in the community, or in various types of facilities, including nursing homes and assisted living facilities. Most long-term care is "custodial care." Medicare does not pay for this type of care.

Medicaid: A joint federal and state program that helps with medical costs for some people with low incomes and limited resources. Medicaid programs vary from state to state, but most health care costs are covered if you qualify for both Medicare and Medicaid.

Medical Underwriting: The process that an insurance company uses to decide whether or not to take your application for insurance, whether or not to add a waiting period for pre-existing conditions (if your state law allows it), and how much to charge you for that insurance.

Medically Necessary: Services or supplies that:

- are proper and needed for the diagnosis or treatment of your medical condition;
- are provided for the diagnosis, direct care, and treatment of your medical condition;
- meet the standards of good medical practice in the medical community of your local area; and
- are not mainly for the convenience of you or your doctor.

Medicare + Choice Plan: A health plan, such as a Medicare managed care plan or Private Fee-for-Service plan, offered by a private company and approved by Medicare. An alternative to the Original Medicare Plan.

Medicare-Approved Amount: The fee Medicare sets as reasonable for a covered medical service. This is the amount a doctor or supplier is paid by you and Medicare for a service or supply. It may be less than the actual amount charged by a doctor or supplier. The approved amount is sometimes called the "Approved Charge."

Section 7: Words To Know

Medicare Carrier: A private company that has a contract with Medicare to pay Part B bills.

Medicare Managed Care Plan: These are health care choices (like HMOs) in some areas of the country. In most plans, you can only go to doctors, specialists, or hospitals on the plan's list. Plans must cover all Medicare Part A and Part B health care. Some plans cover extras, like prescription drugs. Your costs may be lower than in the Original Medicare Plan.

Medicare Private Fee-for-Service Plan: A private insurance plan that accepts people with Medicare. You may go to any Medicare-approved doctor or hospital that accepts the plan's payment. The insurance plan, rather than the Medicare program, decides how much it will pay and what you pay for the services you get. You may pay more for Medicare-covered benefits. You may have extra benefits the Original Medicare Plan does not cover.

Medicare SELECT: A type of Medigap policy that may require you to use hospitals and, in some cases, doctors within its network to be eligible for full benefits.

Medigap Policy: A Medicare supplement insurance policy sold by private insurance companies to fill "gaps" in Original Medicare Plan coverage. Except in Massachusetts, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, there are 10 standardized plans labeled Plan A through Plan J. Medigap policies only work with the Original Medicare Plan.

Open Enrollment Period (Medigap): A one-time-only six month period when you can buy any Medigap policy you want that is sold in your state. It starts when you sign up for Medicare Part B and you are age 65 or older. During this period, you cannot be denied coverage or charged more due to past or present health problems.

Original Medicare Plan: A pay-per-visit health plan that lets you go to any doctor, hospital, or other health care provider who accepts Medicare. You must pay the deductible. Medicare pays its share of the Medicare-approved amount, and you pay your share (coinsurance). The Original Medicare Plan has two parts: Part A (Hospital Insurance) and Part B (Medical Insurance).

Pre-Existing Condition (Medigap): A health problem you had before the date that a new insurance policy starts.

Premium: The periodic payment to Medicare, an insurance company, or a health care plan for health care coverage.

Programs of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE): PACE combines medical, social, and long-term care services for frail people. PACE is available only in states that have chosen to offer it under Medicaid. To be eligible, you must:

- Be 55 years old or older,
- Live in the service area of the PACE program,
- Be certified as eligible for nursing home care by the appropriate state agency, and
- Be able to live safely in the community.

The goal of PACE is to help people stay independent and living in their community as long as possible, while getting high quality care they need.

Skilled Nursing Care: A level of care that must be given or supervised by Registered Nurses. All of your needs are taken care of with this type of service. Examples of skilled care are: getting intravenous injections, tube feeding, oxygen to help you breathe, and changing sterile dressings on a wound. Any service that could be safely done by an average non-medical person (or one's self) without the supervision of a Registered Nurse is not considered skilled care.

Skilled Nursing Facility: A nursing facility with the staff and equipment to give skilled nursing care and/or skilled rehabilitation services and other related health services.

State Health Insurance Assistance Program: A state program that gets money from the Federal Government to give free health insurance counseling and assistance to people with Medicare.

State Insurance Department: A state agency that regulates insurance and can provide information about Medigap policies and any insurance-related problem.

State Medical Assistance Office: A state agency that is in charge of the State's Medicaid program and can provide information about programs to help pay medical bills for people with low incomes. Also provides help with prescription drug coverage.
